

FINDING WATER

Day
12

Children around the world

Children of Egypt

Egypt is a country, mainly a desert, in North Africa, with the Nile River running through it. A dish that children in Egypt typically eat is Koshari and it is made with rice, noodles, tomato sauce, and onions. Christianity is recognized in Egypt, but is not the predominant faith. Pray for Christians living in Egypt to be an oasis for Jesus and that others will be drawn to His Living Water that will forever quench their thirst.

Write out the verse from "Daily Bread" onto a piece of construction paper (3" wide). Tape the strip around a filled water bottle and carry it with you wherever you go to remind you that Jesus will satisfy your every thirst.

"I AM SOOOOO THIRSTY", YOU SAY. PERHAPS YOU'VE BEEN PLAYING WITH FRIENDS OR PARTICIPATING IN SPORTS LIKE SOCCER AND GYMNASTICS, OR JUST GOING THROUGH YOUR DAY WITHOUT STOPPING FOR A DRINK. WHICHEVER IT IS, YOU JUST KNOW THAT YOU ARE LONGING FOR SOMETHING TO SATISFY YOUR THIRST. WATER QUENCHES OUR PHYSICAL THIRST, AND ONLY JESUS SATISFIES OUR SPIRITUAL THIRST. HE TELLS US THAT WHEN WE DRINK OF HIM, TAKE HIM INTO OUR HEART AND LIFE, WE WILL NEVER THIRST AGAIN. TODAY, LET HIM BECOME YOUR LIVING WATER!
